About Connect the Voter

Connect the Voter is dedicated to getting voters involved. A strong democracy requires an engaged electorate. All too often, the voting process is confusing or challenging, and people disengage. By consolidating updated and accurate information, Connect the Voter makes it easier for citizens to get involved no matter where they are in their political journey. From local elections to national, CTV provides the necessary information to jump in.

Vote

The easiest way to get involved is by voting. Use CTV to find voting information in your area.

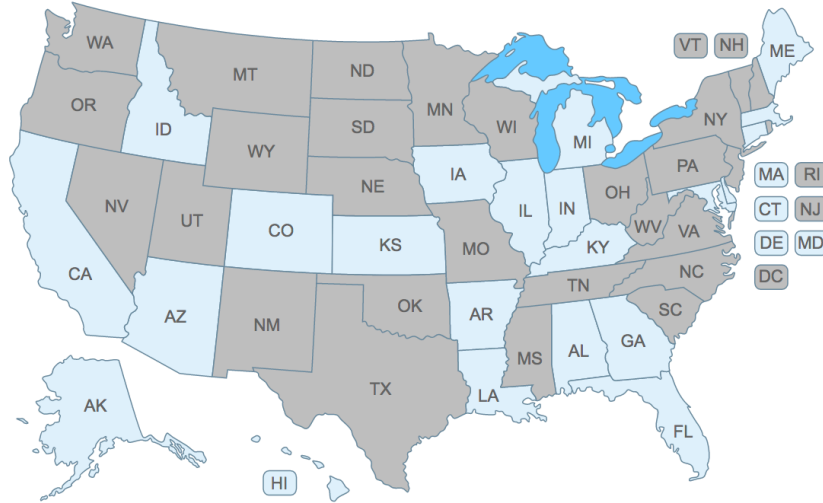

Volunteer

Ready to take the next step? Get involved! Volunteer for local, state, or national elections.

Share

Get other people involved! Whether it is a local school board election or a state senate seat, help friends get engaged with you.
